Early Life and Career

Paul McCartney was born in Liverpool, England, on June 18, 1942. He began playing music at an early age, and by the time he was a teenager, he had formed a band with his schoolmates John Lennon, George Harrison, and Ringo Starr. The band, which was originally called the Quarrymen, would eventually become the Beatles.

The Beatles quickly rose to fame, and by the mid-1960s, they were one of the most popular bands in the world. McCartney wrote or co-wrote some of the Beatles' most famous songs, including "Yesterday," "Hey Jude," and "Let It Be." The Beatles broke up in 1970, but McCartney continued to have a successful solo career.
