A Journey to Self-Discovery and Love

Through the eyes of a young girl, we embark on an extraordinary journey filled with laughter, love, and a dash of adventure. Join her as she discovers the thrill and freedom of riding on her father's motorcycle, a symbol of their unbreakable connection.

Along the way, she encounters various obstacles and learns the importance of perseverance and resilience. With each mile they travel, the bond between father and daughter deepens, creating memories that will last a lifetime.

A Celebration of Hispanic Heritage and Family

"My Papi Has a Motorcycle" not only shares a heartwarming story but also weaves a rich tapestry of Hispanic heritage and culture. The vibrant illustrations, inspired by Mexican folk art, pay homage to the author's Mexican-American roots.

Through its authentic portrayal of family life and traditions, this book fosters a sense of pride and connection among Hispanic readers while introducing non-Hispanic readers to the beauty and diversity of this culture.

A Masterpiece of Collaboration

"My Papi Has a Motorcycle" is a testament to the power of collaboration. Written by Isabel Quintero, an award-winning playwright, and illustrated by Zeke Peña, a renowned illustrator, this book is a true masterpiece of storytelling and artistry.

Quintero's lyrical prose captures the essence of childhood wonder and the complexities of family dynamics. Peña's vibrant illustrations bring the story to life, immersing readers in a world of warmth, adventure, and imagination.
